Everybody knows that a good breakfast is the most important meal of the day and at The Last Kitchen, we know you deserve the absolute best that St. Louis has to offer.

Executive Chef Evy Swoboda has crafted a breakfast menu using local purveyors, butchers, and produce. From farm fresh eggs made to order to the freshest cut bacon Washington Avenue has to offer, The Last Kitchen is the place in the city to start your day off right.

Don't believe us? Try our Last Stack Pancakes. Using heritage flour and STiL 630 bourbon infused maple syrup, this sweet classic is sure to stick around as a favorite. More of the savory type? Our breakfast sandwich with a house english muffin and sausage is tailored to fill the belly of all Washington Avenue locals and give you the energy you need to conquer the day.
